How is your financial adviser paid?

The fees and commissions payable to Potts Duhring Financial Advisors are explained in Part one of the FSG and also below. Consultum may retain up to 5 per cent of these fees and commissions and then pay the balance to Potts Duhring Financial Advisors, which engages your adviser to provide financial services. Of the amount received by Potts Duhring Financial Advisors from Consultum, your adviser is paid a salary, part of which may cover your adviser's operational expenses.

Service and advice fees paid by you

At your first meeting, Drew will explain how Potts Duhring Financial Advisors operates, what you can expect and the payment options. All fees and commissions payable by you will be explained to you at the time advice is given and will also be detailed in a Statement of Advice, Record of Advice and Product Disclosure Statement(s). Please note, in relation to aged care, we charge a flat fee of $330 for your initial meeting.

You will have the ability to select your preferred payment option from the options below prior to the provision of advice. All amounts noted below are inclusive of GST:

Fee for service – once-off

You may be invoiced a once-off fee for the services and advice provided to you. This fee can vary between $330 to $3,300 depending on complexity and time involved.

Statement of Advice (SOA)

A statement of advice fee is charged to cover the cost of researching, developing and preparing your advice document. This fee ranges from $2,200 to $3,300 depending on complexity.

Fee for service – implementation - initial

An initial fee for service represents the cost of implementing the advice contained in the SoA. This fee may be charged as a percentage of up to 2 per cent of assets or charged as an hourly rate of $220.

Adviser service fee

The Adviser service fee represents the cost of providing our annual professional services to you. A summary of the services which you receive for this fee is contained in the Client Service Agreement. This fee may be up to 1.1 per cent per annum of assets under advice or charged as a flat dollar fee starting from $880 per annum, or a combination of both options can be negotiated depending on the complexity of the advice and the agreed level of service being provided. This fee is for a term of 12 months after which services and fees are reviewed and the agreement renewed.

Commission for life risk insurance products – Policies issued from 1 January 2020

Initial commission payable under an upfront structure is capped at 66 per cent from 1 January 2020. Ongoing commission under an upfront structure is 22 per cent of the annual premium paid. Both initial and ongoing commission under a level structure will continue to be capped at 37 per cent.

Other benefits?

Apart from the "Other benefits" section disclosed in part one, there are no other benefits received or relationships that may influence the recommendation.

Overseas disclosures

In order to facilitate the provision of financial services, para-planning and other administrative services for you, your financial adviser utilises a service provider located in Sri Lanka. Accordingly, your personal information will likely be accessed from this overseas location. Any overseas disclosure of your personal information to enable these services to be provided does not affect our commitment to safeguarding your privacy, and we will take reasonable steps to ensure that any overseas recipient complies with Australian privacy law.
